

"The strip label indicating a bottle of wine is a Robert Kacher Selection has become as close to a guarantee of high quality as consumers are likely to find."

DOMAINE JAYER-GILLES

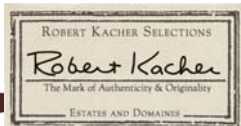

Hautes Côtes de Beaune Rouge '07

" (from 50+ year old vines). Mild reduction cannot completely suppress the seemingly pretty red berry fruit aromas trimmed in a bit of earth that lead to delicious, angular and tangy flavors that possess excellent detail and punch on the light mineral-infused finish. There is also a hint of dryness here though that could easily be the residual effect of ample gas. My score offers the benefit of the doubt . "
