Background

Domaine Marc Morey is located in the heart of the Côte d'Or, in the center of the village of Chassagne-Montrachet. Although the Morey family name can be traced back for more than five generations in Chassagne, it was in the 1950's that Marc Morey established this domaine. He constructed the original cellar beneath the family's 100 year-old home and began vinifying his own wines. His daughter Marie-Jo and her husband Bernard Mollard are the current proprietors. They now own almost 25 acres of Villages, Premier and Grand Cru vineyards and have twice expanded the domaine and modernized the vinification equipment. Bernard and Marie-Jo's daughter is studying oenology and has joined her parents to work the estate.
