present An Evening in the South of France

Michael from Bacon's Spirits wrote: "For those of you who enjoyed our recent culinary journey through Italy with Chef Pippa and the superb Italian wines of Winebow, you'll likely be running straight to your phone when you read this. Yes, we've got a date for the next of what have become the hottest food and wine events in the area! Mark your calendars for Tuesday February 17th at 7:30PM! That's when you can join us for an Evening In The South Of France . This event is going to sell out quicker than opening day tickets for the Red Sox. This event is an amazing value at $45 per person with tax and tip included and it features seven Southern French wines from Robert Kacher Selections and six small plate food pairings (plus an appetizer) from one of France's most beautiful regions. The event will be presented by Chef Pippa and French natives David Turcan and Carole Decouard. If you are looking for the perfect gift for the food and wine lover in your life, this is it! Call Harvest Cafe at (978) 567-0948 or stop by the restaurant to reserve your spot or purchase a Gift Certificate for this event! Remember the Italian Wine Evening sold out in less than two weeks!"

This Event sold out in four days!!! there is a waiting list. we will fill cancellations
